PGA TOUR Champions Announces 2024 Schedule

Upcoming season to feature 28 events and the highest purse in Tour history

PONTE VEDRA BEACH, Florida – PGA TOUR Champions announced today the schedule for its 2024 season, which features 28 events and will conclude at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship in Phoenix, Arizona. The 25-event regular season will welcome one new tournament, the Simmons Bank Championship in Little Rock, Arkansas, and players will visit 19 U.S. states and three other countries (Morocco, Scotland, Canada). In 2024, players will compete for more than $67 million in total prize money, the highest in PGA TOUR Champions' 44-season history.

"We have had a fantastic 2023 season – which included record charitable donations – and we look forward to carrying the momentum from this year into 2024," said PGA TOUR Champions president Miller Brady. "I'm thrilled to be able to share next year's schedule, which includes the Simmons Bank Championship, a new event in our Charles Schwab Cup Playoffs and the first-ever PGA TOUR Champions event held in Arkansas. The success of our Tour comes from the tremendous tournament and title sponsors that support our events, and we are so grateful for those partnerships. PGA TOUR Champions offers the unique opportunity for fans to see golfing legends competing at a high level and after the unprecedented success we've seen this year, we can't wait to kick off the 2024 season."

The 2024 season will tee off with the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai the week of January 15-20 in Ka'upulehu-Kona, Hawaii, marking the 28th consecutive year that PGA TOUR Champions has started the season at Hualalai Golf Course.

The first stateside event of the 2024 season comes in February, with the Chubb Classic, held at Tiburon Golf Club in Naples, Florida. From there, the Tour heads overseas for the Trophy Hassan II at Royal Golf Dar Es Salam in Rabat.

After the event in Morocco, PGA TOUR Champions heads out West for the month of March, with the Cologuard Classic in Tucson, Arizona, which is being contested at La Paloma Country Club for the first time. Back-to-back California tournaments follow, with the Hoag Classic at Newport Beach Country Club then The Galleri Classic at Mission Hills Country Club in Rancho Mirage.

Two PGA TOUR Champions Texas events – the Invited Celebrity Classic at Las Colinas Country Club in Irving, Texas (April 15-21) and the Insperity Invitational at The Woodlands Country Club outside of Houston (April 29-May 5) – are separated by the Mitsubishi Electric Classic at TPC Sugarloaf in Duluth, Georgia (April 22-28).

The PGA TOUR Champions schedule features five major championships – the first in May with the Regions Tradition at Greystone Golf & Country Club in Birmingham, Alabama. The majors conclude in July with The Senior Open presented by Rolex at Carnoustie Golf Links in Scotland.
